

The Honorable Robert S. Lasnik

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

PEOPLES BANK, a Washington corporation

Plaintiff,

v.

BLUEWATER CRUISING LLC, a
Nevada limited liability company, and
SUZAN NETTLESHIP, in personam

Defendant.

NO. C12-0939-RSL

DECLARATION OF SUZAN
NETTLESHIP IN SUPPORT OF
DEFENDANTS' SECOND MOTION FOR
PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

NOTED FOR HEARING ON NOVEMBER
15, 2013

I, Suzan Nettleship do so solemnly swear and state:

1. I am a defendant in the above-captioned action.
2. I am competent to testify in this matter and make this declaration based on my personal knowledge. This Declaration supplements my previous Declarations submitted in this matter on August 15, 2013, and September 6, 2013. I hereby readopt all the statements made in those previous Declarations.
3. I am an accomplished sailor and love the open ocean. Several years ago, I began a world voyage on board S/V Maamalani. This vessel was to be the home for me and life partner/husband, Michael Bell. Mr. Bell and I were married in a public ceremony in 2007, but

1 do not have a marriage license with the State of Washington.

2 4. On April 17, 2012, after sailing to New Zealand, Michael and I berthed the S/V
3 Maamalni in Auckland. On board the vessel at that time were approximately $100,000.00
4 worth of personal property belonging to the two of us, including art work, china, charts, books,
5 gear, and sailing equipment. A true and accurate copy of a list of all gear that was on board
6 S/V Maamalni, that remains unaccounted for through today, is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

7 5. On or around April 17, 2012, the S/V Maamalni was arrested by officials from the New 8 Zealand courts on instructions from Peoples Bank. On May 22, 2012, we were informed that
9 future access to the vessel was conditional upon my signing a Bill of Sale. The Bill of Sale
10 was drafted by Peoples Bank, or its representatives, and presented to me on or around May 23,
11 2012. When I received it, I observed that it stated the "Vessel is sold free and clear of all liens, 12 mortgages, and other encumbrance of any kind and nature..." A true and accurate copy of the 13 Bill of Sale I signed is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Based on this language, the fact that the 14 Bill of Sale was blank, and the value of the S/V Maamalni, I believed that the Bill of Sale was 15 in exchange for any remaining balance on my loan, but would not waive any potential 16 forthcoming surplus.

17 6. Following signing the blank Bill of Sale, Mr. Bell and I were permitted to return to the 18 vessel, re-acquire Mr. Bell's passport and some crucial belongings, and safely depart New 19 Zealand. During this visit, however, we were informed that all items of value identified by the 20 Peoples Bank's representative were to remain on the vessel, and Peoples Bank itself would 21 determine at a future time whether any of the items would be returned to us. As a result, we 22 assembled a large compilation of "contested" property we claimed was our own, and an
23 assembly of "discard" property that Peoples Bank could discard or donate as it wished.
24 Obviously, because of the size, amount, and a continuing dispute with Peoples Bank as to

1 ownership, this required us leaving behind many thousands of dollars' worth of personal
2 property. However, Peoples Bank assured me that all property extraneous to their security
3 interest would be returned to us after our return to the United States. This never happened.
4 Some months later, we received a few boxes that contained only items that had been designated
5 as being in the "discard" pile. The vast majority of our belongings, amounting to 6 approximately $60,000.00 (as reflected in Exhibit A), remain unaccounted for to this day.

7 7. After I returned to the United States, I did not receive any information from Peoples
8 Bank regarding disposition of the S/V Maamalni. At no point after the S/V Maamalni was 9 seized by Peoples Bank did I or Bluewater Cruising, LLC receive an authenticated notice of 10 disposition of the vessel indicating how, when, where, and in what manner it what was being 11 sold. On or around June 13, 2012, I received an email from Charlie Guildner merely stating 12 that he "was working with a broker in Auckland to market the vessel." A true and accurate
13 copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit C. I wrote back to Mr. Guildner stating my 14 concern that, without proper marketing, the vessel would not achieve a fair market value. A
15 true and accurate copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit D. My concern for the value
16 of the vessel was that, if it was not sold at a reasonable price, I would not receive any of the 17 surplus I believed was coming to me.

18 8. During this time period, Michael Bell and/or I were in contact with a number of our 19 sailing acquaintances in an effort to put together a bid for the S/V Maamalni, including Hilton 20 Willett, the build foreman for the vessel, and a couple we knew from Alaska. We were also in 21 contact with a number of individuals who, while not personally interested in buying the vessel,
22 knew of others who may have been. We knew a significant number of individuals who might 23 be interested in purchasing it and hoped to work with one or more of them to either enter into a 24 joint-purchase arrangement, or have them buy the vessel at a fair price.

Mr. Guildner,

Thank you for your e-mail. It is a little difficult to answer your question as you have not indicated what is being shipped. Moreover, I had less than 24 hours to review and pack items from 6 years of living in my home, all of which was in a confine space not conducive to efficiency or thoroughness. As a result, a number of storage areas were not reviewed. Further, the required inventory was developed from memory without benefit of an in situ review. There remained an extensive list of disputed items. A delivery address will be dependent on what is actually being delivered. Suffice it to say, the location will be in the State of Washington and would require a scheduled delivery.

What is more troubling and consequential is your approach toward sale of the vessel. S/V Maamalni is not a Beneteau or other production boat, but is a custom designed and built vessel. Without an understanding of the vessel and benefit of specific detailed intelligence about the vessel's systems and capabilities knowledge, you will not realize the maximum value obtainable from proper marketing and that has a direct impact on me. Further, I continually requested the opportunity to complete certain maintenance items that required immediate attention. When I was finally allowed on to the vessel for those few short hours, it was apparent that lack of attention to these issues had already had a deleterious impact on the vessel.

 You will sign a document in the New Zealand court admitting liability for the debt and consent to a judgment being entered in the Bank's favor in the event there is a breach to our agreement.

You will be allowed to return to the vessel to live aboard however she will remain arrested and in control of the New Zealand Registrar and she will be secured by whatever means necessary to keep her from leaving her current mooring.

You will be given 90 days to pay the Bank in full the entire balance of principle, interest, fees and costs. You may obtain extensions to the 90 days
